DAY 1: BARCELONA → ZARAGOZA → MADRID (395 MILES | 635 KM)

Your journey kicks off with an early morning departure from Barcelona as you head inland toward Zaragoza, the lively capital of Spain's Aragón region. Set just south of the Pyrenees, Zaragoza is rich in history and striking architecture - well worth the stop. Take time to explore the city's highlights, starting with the magnificent Basilica of Our Lady of the Pillar, a Baroque masterpiece deeply tied to Spain's religious heritage. Step inside to admire its grand interiors or head up for sweeping panoramic views. Just nearby, the historic Stone Bridge spans the Ebro River and provides postcard-worthy views of the Basilica reflected in the water.

After some time to explore at your own pace, continue on to Madrid, arriving in the evening for dinner and an overnight stay.

DAY 2: MADRID → CÓRDOBA → SEVILLE (320 MILES | 530 KM)

This morning, depart Madrid and travel through the wide-open landscapes of Castilla-La Mancha, forever linked to Cervantes' Don Quixote. Rolling plains, distant windmills, and timeless villages set a classic Spanish scene as you head south. By midday, arrive in Córdoba, one of Andalusia's most atmospheric cities. Enjoy a guided tour of the historic center, where narrow cobblestone streets, flower-filled patios, and whitewashed homes create a truly enchanting setting. The centerpiece of the visit is the extraordinary Mosque-Cathedral of Córdoba, famous for its forest of striped arches and its seamless blend of Islamic and Christian architecture. You'll also stroll through the old Jewish quarter, a charming maze of streets lined with local tapas bars and inviting cafés - an ideal place for lunch and a break from sightseeing.

In the afternoon, continue to Seville, the vibrant capital of Andalusia. Dinner and overnight in Seville.

DAY 3: SEVILLE (LOCAL TOURING)

Today is dedicated to exploring the cultural soul of Seville with a guided city tour. Begin at the impressive Plaza de España, built for the 1929 World's Fair and often compared to Venice for its sweeping curves, tiled alcoves, and elegant canals. A walk through the nearby María Luisa Park offers a peaceful contrast, with shaded paths, fountains, and Moorish-style pavilions. Next, visit Seville Cathedral, one of the largest Gothic cathedrals in the world, and see the tomb traditionally believed to belong to Christopher Columbus. Continue through the Santa Cruz neighborhood, where narrow streets, hidden courtyards, and sun-dappled squares capture the city's historic charm.

Your afternoon is free to explore as you wish. Climb the Giralda Tower for unbeatable city views, discover the striking Metropol Parasol for a modern architectural contrast, or wander through Triana, a lively district known for flamenco traditions and colorful ceramics. Dinner and overnight in Seville.

DAY 4: SEVILLE → GRANADA (155 MILES | 250 KM)

After breakfast, travel east to Granada, a city where Moorish heritage and Spanish culture intertwine beneath the snowcapped peaks of the Sierra Nevada. The highlight of your visit is the world-famous Alhambra, Spain's most visited monument and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Explore this stunning complex of palaces, courtyards, and gardens, including the richly decorated Nasrid Palaces, the tranquil Generalife Gardens, and the Alcazaba fortress with its commanding views over the city. The remainder of the day is at leisure. Wander through the historic Albaicín district for spectacular views of the Alhambra, browse the lively Alcaicería market, visit Granada Cathedral, or enjoy the city's beloved tapas culture, where small plates often accompany your drinks. Dinner and overnight in Granada.

DAY 5: GRANADA → VALENCIA (309 MILES | 498 KM)

This morning, depart Granada and journey north and east through a changing landscape of rolling hills, fertile farmland, and traditional Spanish towns. Along the way, you'll pass places such as Guadix - known for its cave dwellings - and Puerto Lumbreras, offering glimpses into everyday life beyond Spain's major cities.

By early evening, arrive in Valencia, a vibrant Mediterranean city that effortlessly blends ancient history with bold, futuristic design. Valencia offers something for every traveler: historic monuments, cutting-edge architecture, lively neighborhoods, and a relaxed coastal atmosphere.

Depending on your arrival time, you may begin exploring landmarks such as the breathtaking City of Arts and Sciences, a striking architectural complex unlike anything else in Europe. Stroll through the old town to see the Silk Exchange, a UNESCO World Heritage Site that reflects Valencia's importance as a medieval trading hub, or admire the Torres de Serranos, once a grand gateway into the walled city. Valencia is also the birthplace of paella, making this the perfect evening to enjoy an authentic version of Spain's most iconic dish. Dinner and overnight in Valencia.

TRAVEL AS IT SHOULD BE

DAY 6: VALENCIA → BARCELONA (220 MILES | 355 KM)

Enjoy a relaxed final morning in Valencia. Take time to soak up the city's Mediterranean lifestyle by strolling along its wide, sandy beaches, browsing the bustling Central Market filled with fresh produce and local specialties, or exploring the bohemian El Carmen neighborhood, known for street art, cafés, and historic remnants woven into everyday life. You may also choose to visit Valencia Cathedral, famously associated with the legend of the Holy Grail, or enjoy a leisurely coffee in one of the city's sunlit plazas.

In the afternoon, depart for Barcelona, where your unforgettable journey through Spain - rich in culture, history, and memorable experiences - comes to a close.
