REISEN WIE ES SEIN SOLLTE

OVERVIEW :

This 7-day journey is a beautifully paced exploration of Spain's most iconic regions, tracing a route from the heart of Castile into the soul of Andalucía, across the Mediterranean coast, and back through historic Aragón.

Beginning in Madrid, the itinerary weaves together Roman foundations, Moorish masterpieces, Gothic cathedrals, and modern creative cities—offering a rich cross-section of Spanish history, landscapes, and everyday life.

From the multicultural legacy of Córdoba and Seville to the refined beauty of Granada's Alhambra, the journey reveals the depth of Andalusian culture. Turning east, the tour embraces the Mediterranean rhythm of Valencia and the artistic energy of Barcelona, before concluding with a meaningful stop in Zaragoza, one of Spain's great pilgrimage centers. With a balance of guided touring and free time, this itinerary is ideal for travelers seeking cultural depth without feeling rushed.

TOUR HIGHLIGHTS

DAY 1: MADRID – CÓRDOBA – SEVILLE (530 KM / 329 MILES)

Your journey begins early this morning with an 8:00 a.m. departure from Madrid, heading south through the wide plains of Castilla - La Mancha, a landscape forever linked to Don Quixote. Rolling fields, distant windmills, and big open skies set the tone as we make our way into Andalusia. By late morning, we arrive in Córdoba, one of southern Spain's most captivating and historically layered cities. A guided walk leads through the atmospheric historic center, where narrow cobblestone streets are lined with whitewashed houses decorated with colorful flower pots and hidden courtyards. The visit culminates at the extraordinary Mosque-Cathedral of Córdoba, an architectural marvel unlike any other in Europe. Inside, you'll walk beneath a seemingly endless forest of red-and-white arches, experiencing firsthand how Roman, Moorish, and Christian influences merged over centuries. Time afterward allows you to explore the former Jewish Quarter, browse local shops, or enjoy lunch at your own pace. In the afternoon, we continue to Seville, arriving in time for dinner and a relaxing overnight stay.

After breakfast, we set out on a guided tour of Seville, a city known for its warmth, passion, and unmistakable Andalusian spirit. Our visit begins at Plaza de España, a sweeping semi-circular plaza built for the 1929 Ibero-American Exhibition and admired for its ornate bridges, reflective canal, and colorful ceramic tiles representing Spain's provinces. Just steps away, a stroll through María Luisa Park offers shaded paths, palm trees, and decorative fountains that provide a peaceful contrast to the bustling city. We then admire the exterior of Seville Cathedral, one of the largest Gothic cathedrals in the world, and see Giralda, originally built as a Moorish minaret. Our tour continues into Barrio Santa Cruz, the former Jewish Quarter, where narrow lanes, hidden plazas, and flower-filled patios create an intimate, postcard-worthy setting.

The afternoon is free to explore independently - perhaps visiting the Royal Alcázar, wandering into the Triana district for tapas and ceramics, or enjoying a leisurely café break. Dinner and overnight in Seville.

DAY 2: SEVILLE

DAY 3: SEVILLE – GRANADA (250 KM / 155 MILES)

This morning, we travel east toward Granada, beautifully set at the foot of the Sierra Nevada mountains. Upon arrival, a guided visit introduces the legendary Alhambra, one of Spain's most celebrated landmarks. Within its fortified walls, you'll explore the elegant Nasrid Palaces, where delicate stucco decoration, graceful arches, and tranquil courtyards reflect the refinement of Moorish Spain. The experience continues in the Generalife Gardens, once the summer retreat of Granada's rulers, filled with fountains, terraces, and sweeping views over the city below.

The afternoon is yours to enjoy Granada at your own pace. Wander through the Albaicín's winding streets, browse the historic Alcaicería market, visit the Renaissance cathedral, or experience Granada's famous tapas tradition, where ordering a drink often includes a complimentary small plate. Dinner and overnight in Granada.

DAY 4: GRANADA – VALENCIA (498 KM / 309 MILES)

After breakfast, we leave Granada and begin a scenic journey eastward, crossing a fascinating mix of Andalusian and Levantine landscapes. Rugged mountain terrain gradually opens into wide plains and agricultural regions dotted with small inland towns, offering a glimpse of everyday life beyond Spain's major cities. By late afternoon or early evening, we arrive in Valencia, Spain's third-largest city and one of its most dynamic destinations. Valencia is a city of contrasts, where Roman and medieval heritage blends seamlessly with bold, futuristic design. After hotel check-in, the evening is free to explore at your own pace. You may stroll through the historic old town, admire Gothic landmarks such as the La Lonja de la Seda, once a symbol of Valencia's trading power, or relax in a lively plaza with a glass of wine. Dinner is the perfect opportunity to sample authentic Valencian cuisine - most famously paella, which originated right here and is still prepared according to time-honored local traditions. Overnight in Valencia.

DAY 5: VALENCIA – BARCELONA (355 KM / 220 MILES)

This morning offers time to enjoy Valencia more deeply before we continue north. You may choose a leisurely walk along the Mediterranean shoreline at Malvarrosa Beach, where palm-lined promenades and sea breezes create an easygoing coastal atmosphere. Another popular option is the Central Market, one of Europe's largest and most vibrant food markets, filled with colorful stalls offering fresh seafood, local produce, spices, cured meats, and regional delicacies. You might also explore the El Carmen district, a creative and historic neighborhood where medieval streets, small boutiques, cafés, and striking street art coexist side by side. In the afternoon, we depart Valencia and travel along Spain's eastern coast toward Barcelona. Arrival is in the evening, allowing time to settle into your hotel and begin enjoying the city's lively Mediterranean atmosphere. Overnight in Barcelona.

DAY 6: BARCELONA

After breakfast, a guided tour introduces Barcelona, a city known worldwide for its artistic flair, innovative architecture, and relaxed coastal lifestyle. We begin with panoramic views from Montjuïc, where you can admire sweeping vistas over the city, harbor, and Mediterranean Sea, as well as see landmarks connected to the 1992 Olympic Games. The tour continues into the heart of the old city with a walk through the Gothic Quarter, where Roman walls, medieval streets, and hidden courtyards reveal more than two thousand years of history. This area offers a striking contrast between ancient foundations and the vibrant rhythm of modern Barcelona.

The afternoon is free to explore independently. You may choose to visit Sagrada Família, Antoni Gaudí's extraordinary and still-unfinished masterpiece; wander through the whimsical landscapes of Park Güell; explore museums; or simply enjoy people-watching along La Rambla and the nearby waterfront. Overnight in Barcelona.

DAY 7: BARCELONA – ZARAGOZA – MADRID (635 KM / 395 MILES)

On our final day, we leave Barcelona and travel inland through changing scenery toward Zaragoza, a historic city shaped by Roman, Islamic, and Christian influences. Situated along the Ebro River, Zaragoza has long been an important crossroads of cultures and trade. During our stop, we visit the impressive Basilica of Our Lady of the Pillar, one of Spain's most significant pilgrimage sites and a masterpiece of Baroque architecture, traditionally believed to mark the apparition of the Virgin Mary to Saint James. Nearby, the medieval Puente de Piedra offers classic views of the river and the basilica's domed skyline - an ideal spot for photos and a final taste of Aragón's rich heritage. In the afternoon, we continue to Madrid, where the journey comes to an end, concluding an unforgettable exploration of Spain's landscapes, history, and cultural diversity.
